DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

All claims are allowed. Claims 1-46 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: As through the amendment, the claimed inventions are meant to be within the situation of the handwritten signature system. This refers, of course, to a signing by human hand. While the prior did teach the authentication and aging, storing etc. for signatures, the prior art did not teach or suggest the particular features of the claims such as that the exact features be applicable to a signing by human hand.
